Will Draw Ninety Per Cent Interest

Mother Gives to Loan Fund

A few days ago Nancy Lou Yamane received word that her father had died. Such news is sad at any time, but this was heightened by the fact that Nancy lives in Hawaii and that she didn't have money to go home.

Students started to raise money so that she could make a phone call but the donations snowballed until there was enough money for Nancy to make the trip home.

The sequel came this week when Nancy's mother, Mrs. Florence Yamane sent a donation to the student loan fund.

149,000 dollars have been loaned to over 2,300 students from the college loan fund in the eleven years the program has been in operation. Dr. Sterling Surrey released these figures as of April 20. Less than one per cent of these loans are uncollectable.

Under the separate Federal Defense loan program $60,000 has been received and loaned to 149 students. The College is due to receive $29,000 early in May from the Federal Government which must be matched with $3,200 by the college. Each dollar donated to the Federal program is matched by nine from the Government, a tenfold increase.

The loans from the college funds are interest-free and are generally short term although the terms of each loan are individualized. The scholarship requirements are slightly lower than the Federal program also.

Under the latter no interest or principal is paid until one year after graduation. Then the student is charged three per cent interest and has ten years to pay the debt, but the debt is reduced by ten per cent for each year spent teaching in elementary or secondary schools.

Musicians Plan Student Recital

Thirteen students will present a student recital Wed., May 4, at 8 p.m. in the Horace Mann Auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

Featured in the event, sponsored by the Division of Music, will be several solos with string quartet and brass choir accompaniments which have been pre-recorded.

Students appearing in the recital are: Susan Grube, flute; Janet Plummer, clarinet; Roger Schneider, viola; James Litsch and Jack Ryan, trumpet; Richard Barrett, trombone; J. C. Combs, percussion; George Chaney and Robert Reck, voice; and Joyce Harr, Joel Pottinger, Helen Bahr, and Elaine Cummings, piano.

Alumni Banquet Set for May 25

Gerald B. Rowan, 1937 graduate of Northwest State College, will be the main speaker at the annual MSC college alumni banquet to be held at 6:30 p.m. May 25 in the Union Building. He is associate counsel of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company.

Rowan is married to the former Miss Mary Turner, Pattonsburg. The couple has two children. He is an alumnus of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, and Mrs. Rowan is an alumna of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority.

Proceeds Total $202 For Student Loan Fund From Ugly Man Contest

Over $350 was raised for the NWMSC Student Loan Fund in two campaigns held recently. Proceeds from the seventh annual benefit show held at the Tivoli Theater netted $153.41. The ugly man contest raised $202.

The federal government will give the Student Loan Fund $9 for every $1 collected on the local level. This will amount to an additional nearly $2,300 this year. The proceeds of the benefit movie brought the total netted from the source over the past seven years to approximately $1,650. It will be held again next year.

Everett W. Brown, director of field services, MSC, and Harold Sims, M Club representative, were faculty and student winners, respectively, in the ugly man contest, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

Seniors Offered Aid By Credit Union

All seniors who have signed a teaching contract are eligible to borrow money from the Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union. Loans may be secured for current living expenses, for attending summer school, and for other expenditures. Up to $300 may be borrowed on signature and more with security. Monthly payments may be delayed till fall. For additional information contact Dr. Dale J. Blackwell, Room 207D, Classroom Building.

Colhecon Officers To Sponsor Style Show

Pat Keller, freshman, was recently elected president of the college home economics club, Colhecon.

Other new officers are: Edwina Starks, vice-president; Karen Ruse, secretary; Bernita Crater, treasurer; and Cleanne Ferguson, reporter.

The new officers have charge of the style show being presented by the clothing classes at 8:00 p.m., May 16, in the H.E. Lounge.

Adams Receives Award to SIU

Thomas Adams, NWMSC student, formerly of King City, recently accepted a graduate fellowship at Southern Illinois University effective September 1960.

He plans to do graduate work in physical education. Adams will be graduated at NWMSC June Commencement with a bachelor of science in education degree with mathematics and physical education majors.

He and Mrs. Adams plan to move to Illinois in August.

Concert-Dance to Feature Music of Les Brown's Band

Les Brown and his Band of Renown will perform a concert at 4 p.m. on Friday, May 6, in the College Auditorium. That evening the orchestra will provide the music for the annual Spring Formal. This "big-name" orchestra has already made several appearances in the past at Northwest Missouri State.

LES BROWN

Although the Brown band headquarters, in Hollywood, where it is featured every week on the Steve Allen Variety Show on NBC-TV, it still takes three months each year to tour the country, playing for colleges across the nation. Les has played more college dates in various parts of the country than any other band, he claims.

A unique thing about the "Band of Renown" is the fact that since its formation in 1940 there have been very few changes in personnel. It still includes famous performers such as Butch Stone, long-standing comedian-vocalist; and Stumpy Brown, Les's younger brother, featured singer and bass trombonist.

Brown's songstress is lovely Susan Maro, originally from Des Moines. Through the years, Brown has featured several popular singers, including Doris Day and Jo Ann Greer.

Brown is a composer and arranger who has done arranging for Red Nichols and Jimmy Dorsey. His most popular musical composition is "Sentimental Journey."

A graduate of Duke University, the New York Military Academy, and the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, Brown is recognized as a conductor of symphony as well as popular music. He has been featured as guest conductor for symphony orchestras in many cities, and he has conducted the Hollywood Bowl.

His name has become a symbol of good, listenable music throughout the continent, Brown feels. For twenty years the orchestra has been playing.

Over the past seven years it has been rated the number one dance band in the nation by "Billboard", "Metronome", and "Downbeat" Magazines, as well as the National Boiler room Operators Association.

"Time" magazine recently quoted Brown as saying: "We prefer sound to noise, we prefer the beat over effects, we prefer consonance to dissonance, and we like the melody if it's good."

Coeds to Finals In Beauty Contest

Chances are good that the winner of the St. Joseph beauty contest May 10 will be a Northwest State College coed. Six of the 10 finalists are attending classes at the Maryville college.

Those MSC coeds named among the 10 finalists in the contest being sponsored by the St. Joseph Jaycees are Susan Grube, Linda Louise Reaksecker and Marguerite Donaldson, all of Maryville, and Shirley Ann Hass, Sharon Lee Trump and Dixie Gomel, out of town students at the College.

Actual selection of Miss St. Joseph will be open to the public in competition May 10, at the Robidoux Hotel. Each of the young ladies will be judged on appearance, personality, and talent. Each must present her own talent act at the final selection.

St. Joseph's winner in the pageant will vie for the title of Miss Missouri in St. Louis later this month.

Miss St. Joseph will also be awarded a $150 college scholarship, and the runner-up will be given a $50 scholarship.

Students Favor Initiation, Greeks Want Competition

The following, an editorial by Bob Lafferty, Northwest Missourian Editor, is based upon conversations with campus leaders, student and faculty, and a random polling of the students using questions of general interest. It is personal opinion, not intended to express the views of the administration or the Student Government Association and its officers.

ALTHOUGH A GENERAL APATHY TOWARD THE Student Senate, social functions and college life in general is apparent at NWMSC, a strong and growing undercurrent of critical interest in these areas is beginning to make itself heard.

Possible changes now being discussed fall into three groups:

1. An increase in the quantity and quality of social functions, both major and weekend.
2. An appraisal of present college traditions with an eye toward the nationwide trend of a more mature and modern approach.
3. The formation of an active Independent Club to balance the power of the social Greek organizations and help carry the load of the major activities.

QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF the present social program have been raised due to the great number of so called "suitcase students." Although only 13% of the students contacted said they went home every weekend, nearly ¾ indicated they left at least once a month. A tabulation of available figures showed almost 1/3 of the students are away from the campus during a normal weekend.

Even though the Union Board is now providing dances and movies on Fridays and Saturdays, it is the general feeling that a more unified and larger program would be well accepted by the college community.

Several sources expressed a desire to see foreign and old classic films replace the present modern movies which now compete with downtown trade.

LARGE, ALL-CAMPUS DANCES HAVE ALWAYS BEEN well attended, but even here criticism is being felt. One source quoted Les Elgart, leader of the orchestra selected for this year's Tower Dance, as remarking that this was one of the "deadest" groups he has seen.

In investigating the reason for this feeling, it was found that the general lack of intimacy was blamed. The seeming barrenness of the large gymnasium plus the bright lights above the bandstand were cited as two of the reasons.

Half of the students contacted felt more all school dances at a sacrifice of the big name bands would be appreciated.

THE RECENT TOWER DANCE BROUGHT TO LIGHT another era in which new questioning is apparent. The traditional campus elections of Tower and Homecoming Queens seem to have become merely a stamping ground for Greek organization feuds in which political coalitions mean more than beauty or talent.

Although more than half of the students contacted seemed to enjoy the inter-Greek squabbles, the leaders themselves expressed a desire to delegate the selection completely to outside judges. This would not only give a better chance for an independent candidate, it would return to the few students who worked on the campaigns the time they would spend.

The now almost outdated practice of a strong freshman initiation has also been questioned by some of the campus leaders, but here general student opinion seemed to indicate a wish to retain the present method. Only a very few felt the traditional green caps should be replaced with a more conservative and useful name card.

ONE OF THE MAJOR PROBLEMS FACING THE SOCIAL side of campus life today is the lack of an active Independent Club. A desire for its formation is especially expressed by members of Greek organizations.

They feel a strong non-Greek group would not only help unify the now split fraternity and sorority factions, it would cut down some of the load they now carry during such all-school functions as Homecoming.

Since a local Independent Club would be in the almost unique position of full Greek backing, only the lack of strong leadership is impeding its formation.

Check That Changed Final Exam Schedule

Supervising Teachers Join Honorary Society

Miss Anna Gorsuch and Miss Kathryn McKee, supervising teachers at Horace Mann, were initiated into the Delta Kappa Gamma, international honorary society for women educators, Saturday, April 23, at Hotel Robidoux in St. Joseph, Missouri.

They were two of five initiated. Other new members are from the St. Joseph school system.

In going through the mail this week the Stroller discovered a heart-warming letter in which a lady from Juneau, Alaska, donated $50 to the Student Loan Fund.

In 1953 when she started to school, she was loaned around $500 to help with the expenses of her three children. Without obligation, she promised that after the loan was paid she would send the loan fund a $50 donation. Incidentally, two of her children are now graduates of KU and the third one a sophomore at MU.

The Terrapin and the Rose

By Donna Lynch, Second Prize, President's Essay Contest

In the land where the golden sun generously warms its subjects, there lived a lonely terrapin. Daily, he wandered through the rose-covered valleys looking for food. In this prosperous land, he always found plenty, but there was something missing from his life.

Always, the terrapin carried his home on his back and had no permanent place of his own. He didn't feel secure, even among the red roses in the summer valley.

One day a white rose, blooming among the red, fascinated him. Here was something that seemed precious to him. Here was beauty, purity, and something he might claim for his own. So he picked the flower, intending to take it with him wherever he went.

As he did this, the sun melted the rose and turned it into radiant light, from which an angel appeared, saying, "Terrapin, you have chosen the white rose for your own. For this reason, I shall give you a home in my Heaven, and you shall at last have a haven for your heart."

The amazed terrapin didn't believe he deserved a place in Heaven, for he was one of God's lowliest creatures. The angel reassured him.

"Today, on Calvary's cross, Jesus dies to show his Father's love for all his creatures. He dies for you too. So you see, you have been given a new chance to make your home in Heaven. You have seen and wanted the white rose, and you have it. Come, terrapin, you are ready to have a home for your heart. Come and bring the white rose with you, for Heaven is made of white roses."

They're Talking About . . .

Various and sundry trips to the Ozarks . . . a certain someone getting locked in the Classroom Building . . . the final exam schedule . . . fraternities' formals . . . the new concrete roller skating rink in front of the Union . . . preparations for the coming of KDLX . . . budding trees and romances . . . changes in hair styles and colors . . . bucking the spotlight in front of Residence Hall . . . last minute term papers . . . fishing in the college pond . . . torch bearing in the speech department . . . the Spring Music Concert . . . 60c an hour campus wages . . . the springing flowers (especially dandelions) . . . the onslaught of homework . . . mutilated meal tickets . . . snow on Easter . . . summer vacation . . . conducted tours thru the Towers . . . the chart with the red thumb tacks in the quad . . . Porter Lake . . . the girl who "steals" meal tickets . . . Derby Day . . . graduation!

After such an appreciative donation to the Loan Fund in which one lady sincerely wants to help others the way she was helped, it's a shame that some others can't "leave their fingers to themselves" and quit hurting others who have received similar benefits.

The Stroller surely wasn't heart-warmed by an incident a couple of weeks in which a sum of money was removed from a wallet during a P.E. class. The stolen money had been borrowed from the Loan Fund to help meet expenses and there wasn't even a chance for the boy to use the money when it was really needed.

For that one who took the money, does he ever think of the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," or does he want others to do things like that to him???

The annual exodus to the roof has begun as almost any resident of Residence Hall and Freshman Hall can tell you, and it's pretty obvious to everyone else, too. The Stroller recommends Louise Jann as proof of the power of the sun's rays. And it seems that the roof of the classroom building and a few low-flying airplanes have become pretty popular places for some of the male students.

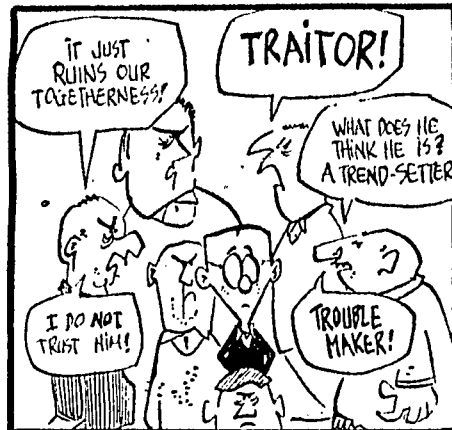

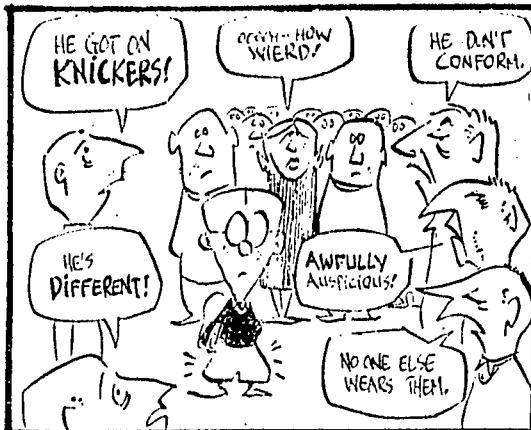

It seems to the Stroller that there is more than usual interest in beauty contests this year; perhaps this is due to the Miss St. Joseph contest. In any case, the Stroller had to chuckle when he overheard one ag major talking to a social science major as they walked in front of the Union. As a particularly "made-up" freshman walked by with scarlet fingernails, gaudy lipstick, and a drug-store complexion, the S.S. major asked, "Now what do you think of that?" The ag major looked carefully and observed, "Speaking as a farmer, I would say that it must have been mighty poor soil to require so much top-dressing."

With the end of school and so many tests, term papers, etc., it's difficult to find anything very cheerful for the Stroller to talk about. Maybe she should be more like the biology major who looked on the bright side of life when he wrote his father, "Dad, you're a lucky man because you won't have to buy a lot of lab manuals and books again next year. I'm taking all my courses over."

CAT TALK

WITH SHANE CAVANAH

The NWMSC track team has more than pulled the unexpected this year with their showing in the meets during the present campaign.

The surprising note to this writer is the fact that Freshmen have been carrying the load for the Bearcat thin-clads.

Only in the weights do the upper-classmen come close to being on an equal basis with the Freshmen. From the short dashes to the distance races, the first year men have racked up more points this season than the other three classes have scored with combined totals.

Such outstanding runners as Rich Sommer, and many others have brought alive the chance for a possible conference championship in a year or two.

The Cats are tuning up for the conference outdoor to be held at Cape in a few days.

With the season slowly drawing to a close, this writer predicts that the Bearcats can honestly say, "Wait 'till next year," and have something to back up their prediction.

The Green and White tennis team has been living up to all expectations by winning every match thus far. With the MIAA conference matches coming up, the Bearcat netmen will be working toward a successful defense of their crown.

Ag Club Elects Gillis

Chuck Gillis has been elected president of the Ag Club for the coming year.

Other officers elected are: Vice-President, Harold Wilmarth; Secretary, Tom Miller; Recording Secretary, Don Burger; Treasurer, Larry Kimble; Reporter, Dick Johnson; Social Chairman, Bill Simmons.

Den Movies Scheduled

June Allyson, David Niven, Martha Hyer, and Eva Gabor star in MY MAN GODFREY, a cinemascope color comedy, to be the den movie presented Friday night, May 7.

Durham and Brooks Badminton Champs

Bill Durham and Al Brooks, both representing the Sig Taus, backhanded their way to the finals and then won over Jim Klower and Glen Brooks to become the men's intramurals badminton doubles champions.

Runners-up Brooks and Klower represented the TKE Fraternity. Third and fourth winners respectively were Ken Cummins and Ricky Seuss of the Phi Sigs; and Jack Freese and Mel Clark representing the Sig Taus.

Phi Sigma Epsilon was the winning Greek organization in the tournament with 120 points. Other close winners were Sig Tau with 80 and TKE's 56.

A softball league of 16 teams began action on Tuesday, April 15.

High interest in softball makes it the drawing card of the intramural program. "Time and limited facilities", stated intramural manager Willie Van Buren "were the factors which limited the softball action to sixteen teams.

The completion of the intramural smash tournament found the top three competitors representing the Sig Tau Fraternity at NWMSC.

Corky Ingram was the individual winner of the 1960 smash tourney out of a grand total of 96 MSC entries. Other winners were Clyde Brown, Bill Durham, and Ricky Suess, Phi Sig.

The Greek organizations were headed by the Phi Sigs in total points with a total of 244 in the event. This compared to Sig Tau's 137 and TKE's 9.

Thinclads Mark Second Gain

With four freshmen leading the way, the Northwest State College thinclads marked up their second win of the season over the Tarkio Owls in a dual track meet on the MSC oval Tuesday afternoon.

Final score was 75-61, almost the same as the 74-62 win scored Apr. 7 on the Tarkio cinders.

The results:
880 Yard Relay: Maryville — (Schmitt, Ward, Porterfield, Kasperperson)—1:33.4.
1 Mile Run: Sommer, M.; Miller, M.; Gordon, T.—4:51.

Bearcats Drop To Rockhurst

Fine relief hurling by Rockhurst's Tom Bell in both games Wednesday at Beal Park handcuffed the Northwest State College baseball team and set them down to a double loss, 2-0 and 3-1.

MSC's batsmen could muster only three hits in each game.

The only Bearcat run was scored by Don Lawton in the final frame of the last game as he literally crawled across the plate.

Fred Fuhr, Bearcat leftfielder, saved the day on two occasions by making fine running catches of well-hit drives.
